Zip HydroTap makes an instant success at leading magazine HQ

Location: Stockport

SLEEPER

Client: Sleeper Magazine

Sector: Commercial

Product: HydroTap Classic in brushed chrome

The brief

- To recreate an inspiring office interior to match the tone of their magazine.

The solution

A leading voice on global hotel design, development and architecture, Sleeper Magazine enlisted creative design studio NoChintz to recreate their office as a stylish yet functional workspace, which included the addition of a new HydroTap Classic in bright chrome. The tap was an instant hit - not only was it sleek, clean and convenient, saving the whole office time when it came to making drinks, but it also removed the need for plastics while keeping employees more hydrated than ever.
